

Centre for Human Rights and Democracy in Africa

CHRDA

www.chrda.org

(+237) 233323314/679821499

admin@chrda.org

P.O Box 524

Buea, South West Region-Cameroon

CALL FOR IDPs TO ENROLL AND BE TRAINED IN DRESSMAKING AND FASHION DESIGNING AT CHRDA EMPOWERMENT CENTRE

Posted date: 23 April 2021

Deadline: 27 May 2021

Opportunity: Free training (dressmaking and fashion designing)

The management of CHRDA Empowerment Centre is inviting Internally Displaced Persons/less privileged who are interested in acquiring tailoring skills to apply and be trained in Buea, Southwest Region Cameroon.

The CHRDA Empowerment Center was launched in December 2019 with the objective of empowering IDPs and underprivileged persons with livelihood skills for sustainable living. The Centre went operational in January 2020, with 15 (10 females and 5 males) registered IDPs as trainees. We recently graduated these IDPs who successfully completed their course in dressmaking and fashion designing. With these skills, they are now ready to enter the job market as entrepreneurs and job creators. They will be able to meet up the financial demands of life, especially within the context of the ongoing crisis. With support from partners and people of goodwill, our desire is to increase the number of trainees for the second batch.

Eligibility Criteria

An Applicant;

Must be an Internally Displaced Person because of the ongoing crisis in the North West and South West Regions of Cameroon.

Must be Resident in Buea, Southwest Region.

Interested persons are expected to submit a handwritten application addressed to the Executive Director CHRDA and a photocopy of the identification card. The application can be submitted directly to our main office located at Bonduma-Buea, Southwest region Cameroon or through the following email genderofficer@chrda.org Applicants who have basic knowledge in tailoring are highly encouraged to apply.

NB: The training is free of charge

Contact: genderofficer@chrda.org or +237 677084410 for more information/inquiry

The Centre for Human Rights and Democracy in Africa (CHRDA) is an independent, non-governmental, apolitical and non-profit making organization dedicated to the protection and advancement of human rights and the promotion of democracy as a political culture in Africa. Its mission is to promote and protect human rights and the rules of law. It ensures the empowerment of community members for economic sustainability, gender equality and the elimination of gender-based violence.

Due to the ongoing political crisis in the North West and South West Regions of Cameroon, a good number of people are being displaced from their zone of comfort and source of livelihood. CHRDA in order to support these persons in our communities regain a source of livelihood and joy realized an empowerment centre which was launched in November 2019 with an objective to train IDPs in tailoring for free. This program which has been ongoing for close to 2years has had a wonderful result in training IDPs and thus is willing to continue doing the great job it was created for. Visit our website www.chrda.org for more information